User manual

PowerPuff App is an application meant to ease the entire process of conference management, starting from organizers to speakers and participants. Here's what you need to know to get you started:

Listener

If you are eager to participate in a conference, look no further. Our application walks you through all of the steps, you simply need to create an account through our registration page by entering the required information.